By MARGARET WADE.

With the color of milady's gown bear-

small as each woman can make it.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

Mr. Todd and his bride left immediately after the ceremony for a motor home at 1813 Sixteenth street.

Visiting in Washington

Mrs. Robert M. Black, formerly Miss Eleanor Simms, is the guest of her sister. hirs. Philip H. Christmas, at 235 Four-

The Argentine Ambassador, Senor Naon, entertained at a luncheon yes-terday at the Shoreham. Others entertaining at luncheon in the room were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hag-ner, the Secretary of Commerce, Mr. Redfield; Prince Hohenlohe, the first secretary of the Argentine Embassy; Mr. Acuna, the Charge d'Affaires of Greece: Col. Goethals, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Waggaman, the Misses Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Goff, the secre-tary of the Netherlands Legation, M. de Beaufort, and Mavroudi Effendi, of Mrs. L. Kerngood has returned to her home in Baltimore after a short visit to relatives in town.

Mrs. E. Ball, of Philadelphia, is spending a few weeks in town, the guest of Mrs. I. Greenbaum. Miss Margaret Greenleaf, of Escanaba, Mich., is spending a short time in town the guest of Miss Helen Fischer, of Lanier place. Mr. Claude Meeker, of Columbus,

Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Levering.

of New York, have arrived in Washington and are at the Shoreham. Mrs. N. Garner, of Newport News, who was the guest of Mrs. N. Peyser, of this city, left yesterday for her

Mr. Amos A. Lawrence, of Boston Mass., is at the Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank, of Richmond, Va., spent a week in town the guests of Mr. and Mr. Wallerstein, of Belmont street

Miss Jennie Rice, of Chicago, Ill., is spending some time in the city, the guest of Mrs. I. Behrend, of Mintwood place,

Among the arrivals of prominent peo ple at the Willard yesterday were Mr. J. Anibol Cruz, of Santa Domingo; Mr. B. Holm Hausen, of Christiania, Norway; Senor Rene Penard Fernandez, of Argen-

Correct Spring Styles in Ladies' Hat Frames of wire, rice net, and French linen. NEW IDEAS

Frames copied from pictures, made to order while you wait.
Straw hats such as hemp, Milan, Canton, and chip cleaned, dyed and remodeled into any style desired.

We make new straw hats to order any style, any color, at a small cost. MRS. DAVID FRANKLIN HOUSTON, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, who is a favorite in official circles.

Robertson, Mrs. H. W. Ragsdale, Mrs. Cato Sells, Mrs. John Dinsmore, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Lea Loch, of Annapolis, Md., are spending the week-end with rela-Robert N. Page, Mrs. Clay Tallman, Mrs. Edwin Sweet, Mrs. Otto Praeger, Mrs. Byron Newton, Mrs. Gibbs Baker, Mrs. Albert Gotlieb returned during the and her guests, Miss Ambler and Mrs. Bartlett Roper, Mrs. B. O. Leech, Mrs. past week to her home in Patchogue, Long Island, after a most enjoyable visit in town, the guest of her parents, W. F. Hummer and Miss Elizabeth Hummer, Mrs. Joseph Sinnott, Mrs. Joseph Folk, Mrs. Forest Prettyman and Mrs. George W. Barkman. Mrs. A. Cohn and Miss Louise Cohn, of Pittsburgh, Pa., are spending a short time in town the guests of Mrs. R. B. Lyon. Mrs. Garrison, jr., wife of the Secretary of War, will return next Sunday from New York, where she is making an ex-An informal reception will be given by the board of managers of the Flor-ence Crittenton Home at 218 Third street tended visit.

northwest on Thursday afternoon, May 20, from 3 to 5 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Ella D. Shaw, of Clifton Station, Va., in appreciation of her generous gift to Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleso have as their guest Mr. Duval West, the President's Mexican agent.

The Secretary of the Navy, accompa-nied by Mrs. Daniels and the Secretary aid, Capt. Wurtxbaugh, went to New York yesterday to review the fleet.

Franklin K. Lane have gone to New York to attend the naval review. The Assistant Secretary of Agricultur

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs

and Mrs. Carl Vrooman will leave for New York tomorrow to review the ficet. They will be the guests of the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels on board

Miss Elizabeth Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton J. Lambert, entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of the senior class at Miss Madeira's Mrs. E. F. Ladd, wife of Col. Ladd, wa hostess at a bridge party yesterday after-noon at the Chevy Chase Club, Mrs. William Marshall and Mrs. William C. Gorgas presided at the tea table.

The British Ambassador and Lady Spring-Rice are expected to arrive in Newport about June 1 for the season,

The Austrian Ambassador and Mm Dumba are expected to arrive about June 1 in Stockbridge, Mass, where the will take possession of Mrs. Lemuel Bol-ton Bangs' place, which they have leased

For Worthy Causes

The Junior League of the National Junior Republic is the object of one of the most interesting benefits of the season, which is to be a moonlight sail on the gleamer Charles Macalester, Satur-day evening, May 29, the steamer leaving Seventh street wharf at 6:20. A buffet supper will be served by Rauscher, and many interesting parties are being plan-ned for the occasion. The tickets are sold at the very reasonable rate of $1.

Church will hold a pediar's parade and parcel post party in the lecture room of the church Fiday evening May 21, at a collect.

Sociock.

Aprens, fancy work, homemade candy bread, rake, fruit, lemonade, etc., will be the season will be the benefit card party Judd, Mrs. Sathe Garrettson, Misses Dan-

Wears-The Time and Place. By MARGARET WADE.
Fashions for every occasion have had but no other jewels.

FASHIONS AT THE CAPITAL

The Well-Dressed Woman of Smart Society, What She

their innings in the past week, which Mrs. George Widener, a guest at the has been marked by happenings, both same dinner party, also were a black grave and gay, and as full of social in-tulle gown, but with its satin foundaterest as any seven Washington days could be, between January and June. hat of mauve tulle, and wore a cor-While the elimination of the White sage bouquet of orchids and gardenias House garden parties by reason of the Mrs. Edwin Gregory, of South Caropersonal mourning of President Wilson line, the popular young daughter of Senator Lee Overman, is wearing a one of its most attractive spring fea. very smart afternoon gown of black tures, the great increase of social life at net over a foundation of silk, with the tures, the great increase of social life at the Country Clubs, the al fresco supper parties, the Horse Show and numerous small garden parties with or without a philanthropic object and an admission fee, have all been conductve to good dressing.

The tover a foundation of silk, with the round net skirt trimmed in bands of silk and rows of narrow quilled satin. The top is of net over chiffon and of course a satin foundation with a deep smart collar of white satin giving the finish to the semifocat bodice. Mrs. Overman's hat is large and round, black, faced in white, with a trimming of black, faced in white, Washington's two most noted spring brides, both young and wealthy widows, gave a great promotion to the tailored suit as a wedding gown. Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin, who became Mrs. Henry F. Lippett, and Mrs. Clarence Menry Tork, is leaving a charming impression to the property of the summer home in New York, is leaving a charming impression. gave a great promotion to the tailored suit as a wedding gown. Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin, who became Mrs. Henry F. Lippett, and Mrs. Clarence Moore, who became Mrs. Alex Christian Prehan Wickfield in the same week, each wore a severed tailored suit of dark blue with smart hat to match. In each case the marriage ceremony was followed by the immediate departure of the respective brides and bridegrooms for New York, so these wedding costumes were traveling suits, which, from this time forward may be expected to take the place of the last decade mauve, gray, or white demittiellet, formerly considered the proper dress for a widow, however young, who proposed embarking on matrimonial seas for a second time.

Both the former Mrs. Laughlin, and the former Mrs. Moore, are famous as well-gowned women, not only of Washington, as well-gowned women, not only of Washington, but of America, which makes their example worth noting in matters of dress.

Another example well worth noting is Another example well worth noting is the wearing of the simplest white gowns for the numerous afternoon affairs of an informal character by women who might if they choose, go about in silk attire, all day long. Mrs. George Howard, at a recent garden party for charity, wore a white linen skirt, with blouse of the finest Georgette crepe, on smart, severe lines with sleeves to the wrists, and shallow turn-back collar. Both skirt and blouse were without so much decoration as a hemstitched edge, while the belt joining the two was a plain white and blouse were without so much decoration as a hemstitched edge, while the belt joining the two was a plain white grosgrain ribbon. Mrs. Howard's hat, which thus far is the only one of its exquisite kind known to Washington, was a broad brim and a round domentaped crown of horsehair braid. The braid is invisible, however, as the hat is covered by a succession of scallopped

Anibol Cruz, of Garda Dominson, Mr. 2.

Anibol Cruz, of Garda Dominson, Mr. 3.

Anibol Cruz, Mr. 4.

Anibol Cruz,

inasmuch as the white was merely a binding about the top, and invisible except by contrast with the black silk hostery. The latter showed a return to the old-time "clocking" in white. serge, with plaid skirt and Norfolk jacket, with white waistcoat and a round hat of chalk white chip, with band and cockade of heavy black ribbon. Young Mrs. Spencer's skirt was like the Misses Sheridans, just four inches off the ground. Her shoes and holsery were black.

With the color of milady's gown bearing a close relation to the economic and commercial questions of dyes and dyestuffs, cut off by the European war, the exquisite deep purple copied from the colored magnolia flower, gains new distinction and becomes extremely rare.

Mme. Ritter, the wife of the Minister from Switzerland, and Mrs. George Corcoran Eustis, are the happy possessers of gowns of this particular tint, although in different materials. Mme. Ritter's gown is of satin along rather plain Miss Isabelle Wells, who has opened her home on Connecticut avenue for the spring season, in dining at Chevy Chase recently, wore one of the smartest white gowns of the season. A silver white tisthough in different materials. Mime, Ritter's gown is of satin along rather plain lines, with a slight train and the new
lines, with a slight train and the new
pointed bodice. The latter opens over a V-shaped front of rich old lace, and gold threads. This touch of gold, which has elbow sleeves finished in lace ruf-fies.

Mrs. Eustis' gown is of chiffon over self-colored satin. The chiffon is draped in long lines in the very smart fashion of the coming, rather than the past season, and is evidently intended as a dinner gown for Newport, where Mr. and Mrs. Eustis have recently purchased a close coffure, has returned to a more dinner gown for Newport, where Mr. and Mrs. Eustis have recently purchased a cottage. The bodice is sleeveless with a V-shaped neck. As worn at the play recently, where its owner enterplied a box party, a scarf of chiffon or tulle matching the gown in color, was worn across the shoulders, with a fold of the same tulle used as a bandeau about Mrs. Eustis well-coiffed blonde hair. The coiffure in question is one of the signs close corsage embroldered in pear! beads that are to light-weight textures wha coiffure in question is one of the signs pointing to a return of what the milliners call a greater head size. Just at present, the "head size," with or with-out regard to the millinery trade, is as rhinestones are to velvet or heavy satin Mrs. Bowers' smart blue bodice has sleeves, another new feature. The sleeve to be sure are of net in a cream color and would be invisible across a dining table except for their decoration of beads The same ultrasmart color tone is applied in the same curved motifs that shown in a tailored suit of gabardine worn by Mrs. Stephen B. Eikins at the opening of the Horse Show. Mrs.

Elkins' hat was the same color straw trimmed in paradise plumage to Miss Julia Meyer, daughter of the for mer Secretary of the Navy, who is pass ing the spring in Washington, en route from Aiken to Boston, is smartly attired as ever and one of the sponsers of the Mrs. John Jacob Astor, who is still short skirt in its most extreme fashion. At a small dance at the home of Mrs. in mourning for her husband, who went down on the Titanic, was a much admired figure at the Shoreham Robert Patterson, Miss Meyer wore quit the shortest, as well as one of the smart Hotel. where she and a party of friends were dinner guests of Mr. Clarence Mackey, also of New York. Mrs. Astor, who is tall and the picture of health, wore a gown made entirely of black tulle. The skirt touched the floor at front and sides with a short train. There was no drapery, but the unnumbered tiers of tulle were of graduated length and cut in deep rounded scallops, that turned outward like the petals of turned outward like the petals of turned outward like the petals of some huge flower reversed. There was no binding of edges, and no visiting times as one of the smartest gowns, of the evening. This was of green faille, or a superlative weave of taffeta in the new blue-green shade that has no American name, and is only obtainable in French material of the present season. The skirt is very full, with at forms four distinct scallops. The edge of the skirt is finished by a two-inch puff of the material that further forms four long narrow motifs at the top of each of the high cut edges. The top some huge flower reversed. There was no binding of edges, and no visible seams. The top was equally ble seams. The top was equally smart, with a square neck and wore as a corsage natural orchide with a quaint little tuile sleeve beneath. The latter merely a puff, but most effective. Mrs Astor wore her abundant hower hair arranged in the hosiery "orchadia" satin, matched the

the season will be the benefit card party. Dudd. Mrs. Sallie Garrettson, Misses Danto be given by the Divis Chapter, U. D.
iet. Miss Lillian Morgan, Miss May E.
C. Wednesder exeming, May 19, at 5.29
Little, Mrs. Henry Knock, Mrs. J. H.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses, Mrs. J. N. Blaze, Mrs. S. M.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses, Mrs. National Misses Consider Mrs. Mrs.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses, Mrs. National Mrs. Sentence Misses Consider Mrs.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses, Mrs. National Mrs. Sentence Misses Consider Mrs.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses, Mrs. National Mrs. Sentence Misses Consider Mrs.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses, Mrs. National Mrs. Sentence Misses Consider Mrs.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses, Mrs. National Mrs. Sentence Misses Consider Mrs.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses Mrs. Mrs. National Mrs. Sentence Misses Consider Mrs.
Crate Memorial Home, All who desire to Demisses Mrs. Mrs. National Mrs. National Mrs. National Mrs. Mrs. National Mrs. Mrs. National Mrs. Mrs. National Mrs. National Mrs. National Mrs. National Mrs. Mrs. National Mrs. Natio tree will be given forced to the benefit of the restance of the ballenous of the Confest for the benefit of the sector in the part of the force of the benefit of the sector in the part of the sector in the restance of the sector in the sect

Tavers Travers Shoes below the prices stamped on the bottom at the factory. The lines included in this unusual sale are not broken, and contain all sizes and widths 2 to 81/2, AA to D. Special Lines $3.00, now $3.50, $4.00, odels. White and black sand and putty, gur $2.95 and patents. We have too many-that's all.

Hinkle, Mrs. Gustavus Weber, Mrs. Tucker Sands, Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Edwin C. Dutton, Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, Mrs. W. A. Morton, Mrs. J. F. Little, Misses Bowle, Mrs. W. A. Mayne, Mrs. R. D. Mulcare, Mrs. Sadle F. Hutton and Misse Helen Griffith.

What promises to be one of the pleas-antest benefits of the season is "The Girl of My Dreams," to be given at Columbia Theater, on the evening of May 24, for George Washington University Hospital. The committee in charge are Mrs. Willigm Cline Borden, Mrs. Charles W. Richardson, Mrs. E. C. Brandenburg, Mrs. E. A. Byrnes, Mrs. D. K. Shute, Mrs. D. Franklin T. Schneider, Mrs. D. W. Prentiss, Mrs. J. Hall Pilling, Mrs. Frank G.

Engagements and Weddings

as was announced last night at an inin was announced last night at an ininal party at the residence of Miss ce in the Massachusetts apartments.
Cong the guests were a number of
cong the guests were a number of
cong the Miss Boyce at Cornell Uniconstants of Miss Boyce at Cornell Unikins was announced last night at an in-formal party at the residence of Miss Boyce in the Massachusetts apartments. Among the guests were a number of classmates of Miss Boyce at Cornell University, where she was a graduate two years ago. The wedding will take place in August at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Boyce, in Salamanca, N. Y., after which Mr. Wilkins and his bride will take a trip to the Pacific Coast, where he will be a delegate to the convention of the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity, representing the Gamma Eta Chapter at the George Washington University. He is also a member of ma Eta Chapter at the George Washing-ton University. He is also a member of the Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity. Mr. Fred Hausmann, Mr. William and Wilkins' home is in Champaign, Ill., be-ing at present located in Washington in connection with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Arthur A. Selbert and Miss Margaret E. Stevenson, both of Chicago, were married in the apartment of the were married in the apartment of the bride's aunt, Miss C. B. Milligan, at 1216 of the Confederacy at their cle exercises at Memorial Home in Vers at 4 o'clock. Only members of Miss Stevenson's family and a few relatives at the educational work of the venson's family and a few relatives at-tended the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. James Montgomery, paster of the Metropolitan Memorial M. E. Church. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Selbert will return to the city, and will occupy an apartment at the Mount Pleasant for the season. Mr. Seibert is connected with the Foster Plano Com-

Mrs. Mary E. Tomlin, of Capitol Hill, announces the engagement of her daugh-ter. Josephine Marie, to Mr. Charles A. Burmeister, son of Judge Frank H. Bur-meister, of Texas. The wedding will bobby take place in Jun-

The Betsy Ross Society, which spent the winter season sewing for Belgium relief, noted the close of its sewing season by a reception and dance Thursday night

Thursday these present at the dance. Thursday intgle acre Mine Final Muner, Mine Holes Muner, Mine Holes Mine March Man March Mine March Mine March Cally Mine March Cally Mine March Cally Mine March Colours, Mine March Colours

On Saturday evening, May 8, at their residence on K street, Mr. and Mrs. William Hausmann were given a surprise party by their children, Mrs. Charles Goldsmith, Mrs. George F. Harding, Mrs. Claude Offutt, Miss Mabel Hausmann, Mr. William Hausmann, and Mr. Frederick Baker Hausmann, in honor of the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding.

Ockershausen, Mrs. George Ockershausen and daughter, Misses Lillian and Gladia Ockershausen, Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. John Klug, Miss Emily Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. George F. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Offutt, Mr. William

Marie Offutt.

Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, presiden
of Maryland Division, U. D. C., and Mrs.
E. C. R. Humphries, were the honore
guests of the Mildred Lee Society Chil

CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE.

THE MAIR DEAUTY THAT BELONGS TO T

So many who have long known tha nence what they mistak means only keeping the scalp and perfectly clean by use of some tion made for shampooing, not eral cleansing. You can enjoy that is known for about three champoo by getting a package throx from your druggist. Di teaspoonful in a cup of he

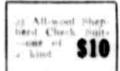

Kafka's, F at Genth

The Newest of White Dresses for Graduation, Confirmation and May Processions

All sizes-Dainty frocks of every description-White organdie frocks-Filmy net dresses-quaintly demure taffeta dresses that are especially noteworthy. Wonderful assortment at-

UNUSUAL VALUES. $10.00 $15.00 $16.50 $19.50

Kafka's Fat Genth

Skirt-, sample, $1.95